MILITARY MOVEMENT AGAINST SALT LAKE

St. Louis Mo., Feb. 20, 1858.

The Independence correspondent of The Republican under date of the 16th says, the Salt Lake mail arrived last night. Conductor Dearer reports snow from one to six feet deep on the mountains. Weather intensely cold. He left Camp Scott January 1. The troops were in good spirits, earnestly wishing for good weather and reinforcements to make a descent on Salt Lake City. From Mormon prisoners and straggling Utah Indians Johnson is well advised as to the movements of the Saints. Active preparations continue for the resistance of troops in the spring. Their municipal regulations are very stringent. Suspicion fastens on everybody the least inclined to favor the actions of the United States government.
